MURDER AND SUICIDE
Earnest L. Poppiano shot and fatally wounded his wife and afterwards shot himself, inflicting wounds which resulted fatally some hours later, at a point on the main road between Cherry Creek and the railroad station about one and one-half miles from Cherry Creek, at about 4:45 Thursday afternoon—Ely Record.

BURNED ABOUT THE FACE
Clifford Hooper, employed at the Desert mill at Millers, is suffering from serious burns received when a fuse blew out and the flash went directly into his face. His left arm also was scorched.

MOOSE SECRETARY
LOSES A FINGER
William Mitchell, who is well known as secretary of the old Miners' Union and is secretary of the Moose lodge of Tonopah, sustained the loss of one finger, which was crushed by a falling rock. The patient is getting along as well as any man could who has a carbuncle on the back of his neck in addition to his other injury.

TELEPHONE COMPANIES RACING TO TONOPAH

The death of Jack McKenzie, the first fire chief of Tonopah, started a chain of reminiscences with R. B. Davis, chairman of the board of county commissioners yesterday, when he dwelt on the circumstances in connection with the first telephone line to Tonopah. This was in charge of "Jack," who had a contract to beat the Candelaria line into camp. The first named line was built from Sodaville, the natural starting point for all business coming to or leaving Tonopah, while the Tonopah Mining company resolved to run a line from the old camp of Candelaria. Everything went along in fine shape, but the Sodaville crowd managed to keep just about one jump ahead of the rival company. The latter had unlimited backing from the Philadelphia crowd, while the Sodaville bunch was promoted by Jim Lothrop and Dick Davis. The contract for the Candelaria line was awarded by John W. Jenkins, first manager of the Tonopah Mining company, to Bob Hofer and R. Graham Laws, with the latter in personal charge of the line gang. Laws knew nothing about the country and only had a vague idea of the location of Tonopah, which he had never visited, having come direct from Hawthorne and he proceeded to lay out the line by rule of thumb, first traveling in one direction and then another as the whim struck him. This resulted in increasing the mileage enormously, while the Sodaville crowd kept to the stage road by way of the Summit and Crow Springs, making an almost direct line. All was going as merry as the proverbial wedding bells when the Lothrop-Davis crew got hung up three miles from town and nothing could be done in spite of the tantalizing offer of a wine dinner at Casey & Arden's if the boys managed to beat the rivals into camp. The situation looked desperate, but the gloom was lifted when it was learned that the Candelaria line also was hung up five miles out. Then Jack McKenzie, Dick Davis and Jim Lothrop began rustling for material. Cottonwood poles were brought in from Carson valley and a stock of baling wire was found at Bishop. The builders were not particular. All they wanted to do was to get a wire through to the new silver camp which throbbed for news from the outer world. In the meantime while waiting for supplies Jack McKenzie operated the telephone line with the assistance of an old grey mare and cart which he hitched up whenever he found three of four messages waiting for transmission. With these he would amble down to the end of the line, send out the messages, receive the latest from the outside and amble back to Tonopah. With the arrival of the materials no time was lost in rushing the line to completion, with an office established at the Lothrop-Davis store. With the advent of the speculative era and the coming of brokers to share and stimulate the excitement the line was turned into a straight telegraph line and three operators were kept busy day and night. The Candelaria line never amounted to anything, for the Tonopah Mining company got better service via Sodaville and patronized that route. Eventually the line was taken over by the present Nevada Telephone Telegraph company and the service north was retained only as a telegraph route.

MONARCH DRIVING FOR OHIO VEIN

The Monarch Pittsburg Mining company has levied an assessment of one cent a share against all stockholders, payable not later than July 25. The notice to stockholders is accompanied by a statement from Branch H. Smith, superintendent, declaring the company has excellent prospects of picking up the extension of the Ohio ledge. The statement follows:

"Since our annual report for the year ending December 31st, 1917, we desire to state that the $15 raise, which was being extended on a contract of West End rhyolite and Extension breccia was extended to a vertical height of 250 feet, whereupon further work was suspended and a new level started off the shaft at the 600-foot point, which is the equal elevation of the face of the mentioned raise.

"A station was cut and a south-westerly crosscut was extended a distance of 600 feet with the view of picking up a possible extension of the Ohio vein, whose strike and dip should make any extension of same enter your property.

"Our work at the present time is being confined to the retimbering of the shaft from the surface down to the 600-foot level. This shaft was sunk and timbered in 1904-5 and both have given excellent service; but there is a limit to the life of everything, and with 'safety first' always in mind, it was deemed advisable to replace the timbering at this time. It is estimated that this work will be completed on or about the 15th of July, when a continuation of the development plans as outlined will be had."

TOWN OF PORTOLA DAMAGED BY FIRE

PORTOLA, June 25.—Four big buildings on Main street, together with several thousand dollars worth of groceries and merchandise were destroyed this morning by a fire that started at 4:30 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. building here. The buildings destroyed included:

I. O. O. F. building, two stories.
Home hotel, two stories.
J. Sorocco's grocery store and stock of goods.

F. Van Norden's jewelry store.
The fire was so hot that it scorched the buildings across the street but it was placed under control when it reached the fire station although that building was badly scorched. No one was injured.

The lower floor of the I. O. O. F. hall was used as a lodge room and the upper floor for a dance hall.

WOMAN'S DAY AT THE NAT.
Tomorrow morning between the hours of 9 to 12 the public swimming pool will be reserved for the ladies. Any children who may come will be charged for admission. The attendance at the natatorium has improved with the hot weather and the reports for last week show an average daily attendance of 125.

ASSESSMENT WORK BILL REPORTED

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Senator Henderson's resolution suspending the requirement of annual assessment work on mining claims during the war was reported favorably by the senate mines committee.

BRITISH U-BOAT IN A COLLISION

LONDON, June 25.—(Via Ottawa)—Interesting narratives from reliable sources refute the German assertion regarding the alleged ineffectiveness of depth charges and other methods of destroying submarines.

On a bright moonlight night a British patrol boat observed a submarine half a mile distant, apparently recharging. The captain immediately ordered full speed in the direction of the U-boat with the object of ramming her before she was able to submerge. The U-boat succeeded in submerging but the patrol boat came up and dropped six depth charges and then fired a shell at the center of the visible disturbance. Large quantities of oil came to the surface and cries for help were heard. Only one survivor was found.

A British submarine recently rammed an enemy submarine. The British boat cut through the enemy's plates and remained imbedded. Both crafts endeavored to extricate themselves. The enemy, through using both his ballast tanks, almost came to the surface, bringing the British submarine along. Then the German drew away in great difficulty, apparently frantically endeavoring to keep afloat, but subsequently sank.

All citizens are invited to attend the Elks' free public reception to the visiting Elks and recruits this evening at the Airdome.

But it is hotter in the trenches, and there is no ice wagon on that route. So don't worry.

TEN DAYS GRACE FOR INCOME TAX

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Sounding a final warning to income and excess profit taxpayers who on June 15 permitted payment of their tax to lapse so as to take advantage of the ten days of grace allowed by law, Collector of Internal Revenue Justus S. Wardell said that this is positively the last day for payment. After this date the books will be closed and the penalties added.

"Unsubstantiated statements of taxpayers that they have failed to pay their taxes because they have not received assessment or demand notices, will not relieve them of penalty if they do not settle their accounts with the government today," said Wardell.

It was further stated that in handling more than 130,000 income accounts in this district it was not unlikely that some notices of assessment or demand have gone astray. In this event, the collector pointed out, it is the duty of every good citizen, both for business and patriotic reasons, to immediately get in touch with the internal revenue office and make a tender of the amount of his tax based upon his income tax return.

POPULARITY OF BOTTLES BRING GOOD RETURNS

The milk bottles for Belgian babies are holding their own with all other drives. Today the receipts were counted and the sum of $33.20 added to the total for the second week of the experiment. The first week realized $40.20. The campaign is in the hands of Mr. C. E. Waldner, Miss Blanche Robb and Miss Alice Dumont.

NOTICE TO RED CROSS MEMBERS
All members, who joined in May, 1917, when the Nye county chapter was organized, and who did not renew their subscriptions during the Christmas drive, December, 1917, are notified that their subscriptions expired in May, 1918. Dues for the entire year (Annual $1, magazine $2) should be sent to Mrs. C. M. Bradner, secretary. Adv3253

AMUSEMENTS

"Carmen of the Klondike," best Alaska picture since "The Spoilers," will be the attraction at the Butler today. The story, which is thrilling and gripping, with suspense running throughout its seven exciting reels, concerns the adventures of a middle west vaudeville favorite, a part portrayed by Miss Clara Williams, who deserts her theatrical career to go to the Klondike region of Alaska, and seek her fiancé, Cameron Stewart, a young attorney.

On the boat she meets "Sik McDonald," who is famous for his infamy in affairs with women. McDonald is attracted by her and as a result, in a rage, when she ignores him, that he will obtain her for his own. Upon landing in Alaska, McDonald, who is well known because he is proprietor of the gayest amusement hall in Skagway, hurries ahead of the girl, and when she arrives at the home of Stewart she receives the greatest shock of her life—due to the trickery of McDonald. At the climax there occurs the most ferocious, raging, hand-to-hand battle between two men which has ever been reproduced on the screen.

RENO PRO GERMAN THROWN IN JAIL

Charged with violating the espionage act by making seditious remarks, Louis Hempel, an employee of the Reno cigar factory, was arrested today on a warrant issued by William Woodburn, United States attorney, and is in the city jail, says the Gazette. His case will be laid before the federal grand jury.

Hempel is alleged to have made many remarks of a seditious nature, among them being that "we will all be talking German in the United States soon."
